The day was warm (29 degrees) and hazy due to an extensive backburn taking place in the Blue Mountains. The wind was from the SE and swung around to the NE in the afternoon. The breeze was very fickle at times with the strength and direction moving around and this tested the skippers in preparing for the constant wind shifts. The Solings were first on the water and we welcomed Kevin today as a new member of the club. Kevin did very well for his first day out and has some fine tuning to do on his new Soling. At the end of the day Robert was the winner with Frank coming second followed by Ian in third place on a countback from Michael. The 10 Raters enjoyed some lively racing and the mid afternoon period produced some good wind. Many of the races were won or lost at the leeward mark as it proved very difficult for most skippers to approach and the wind tended to die at the buoy. After six races Ian won the day on a countback from Maurice who came second with Michael coming in third. This is the last day of this event and the results show the final placing before drops. Brian was not able to sail with us today and we wish him well recovering from a recent operation.
