The day was wet, grey and cold (14 degrees) and not that fantastic except for the breeze, which came out of the southwest and strengthened during the day. The combination of strong wind and showers led to a high attrition rate with many yachts not completing the round-robin event. Ian was the first to go after only the first race with transmitter trouble, followed by Terry and Kevin who both had problems with rudder servos in their 10 raters, and then Michael completed the carnage by breaking a stay on his 10R. Congratulations to the skippers who did make it through the day problem free. After two rounds in the 10 raters the day winner was Phil, followed by Sid and Bob. In the Soling 1M event the winner was Sid followed by Michael and Ian. The overall results are now poised for a great third day at the end of June to complete the series.
